

Use Cases

Under Construction

The primary actors and their general goals

| Actor | Goal |
|---------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Client (Browser) |  ... |
| Developer | |
| Framework (System) | |
| Container | |
| Extension (Plug In) | |

Business Use Cases (end user applications)

| Priority | Actor | Goal | Story or Brief | Issue ID |
|----------|-----------|---------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| | Client | Obtain Response | Client can submit a request and receive a customized response. | |
| | Framework | Execute Action | A request can invoke a pluggable handler written as a server-side class. | |
| | | |  ... | |
| | | | | |

Development Use Cases (application developers)

| Priority | Actor | Goal | Story or Brief | Issue ID |
|----------|-----------|-------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| | Developer | Create Action | How to create an Action class | |
| | | |  ... | |
| | | | | |

Framework Use Cases (framework developers)

| Priority | Actor | Goal | Story or Brief | Issue ID |
|----------|-----------|---------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| | Developer | Zero Configuration Scanning | How we configure actions using conventions and annotations | |
| | | |  ... | |
| | | | | |

See Also

- Requirements
- More About Use Cases